

This 2010 Ribbon of Hope grant to Avery County Smart Start: A Partnership for Children expanded the Raising A Reader[®] program in Avery County. Raising A Reader is a national early literacy program that fosters parent-child bonding and brain development to prepare children for success in school. The program activities support healthy brain development, parent-child bonding, and early literacy skills critical to success in education.