

Family Literacy Program

The Family Literacy Program fills a gap in services provided to Latino families with children 0 to 5. The program will address English Language Acquisition and Literacy Skills development in the context of learning about the importance of early childhood education, and incorporates four components: child literacy, adult literacy services, parenting education, and parent and child together time.