

Gizmos and Gadgets

This grant supported the development and implementation on a new Gizmos and Gadgets science educational series at the Greensboro Children's Museum. The exhibit is designed to spark preschool and elementary-age students' interest in science. The Greensboro Children's Museum serves 125,000 visitors annually, including an economically, racially, and culturally diverse population of families, community groups, and school field trips.