

Uniting NC will use the Ribbon of Hope funds to expand its free, three-stage technology program for low-income minority and immigrant youth (ages 15-25). Participants would engage in hands-on classes and internship experiences, learn from mentors in the tech industry, and meet startup founders to help them engage in tech careers or pursue a tech education. This grant will impact communities in Sampson and Johnston Counties.

Uniting NC