

Family Support Network of Southern Piedmont

Project Baby Reach

The Family Support Network of Southern Piedmont (FSNSP) will use the grant to enhance their Project Baby Reach program. The program aims to improve the developmental outcomes of preterm infants and provides resources and supports their families. Due to the pandemic more virtual and online resources are needed. This project will expand their website, including materials to be translated into Spanish and access to NICU resource information.