

Julius L Chambers

Biomedical/Biotech Research Institute

A 1,000,000 traditional grant (2000 – 2003) was awarded to North Carolina Central University to support operations and expansions at the research and training programs of the Institute. The funding will directly support expanding the focus on human genomics and bioinformatics research, establishing an animal resources program, and strengthening the major core laboratories.