

Blue Ridge Mountains Health Project

The nonprofit received funding supporting the Prosthetics Program. This program provides free dental services to low-income residents of Western North Carolina. The program assists patients with crowns and dentures in cases of extreme dental disease.