

Shad in the Classroom

This 2018 Ribbon of Hope grant proposes a hands-on science project for youth in grades 5-12, using standards-based activities to engage students in migratory fish restoration activities and improve environmental stewardship. Bladen County Community College students will serve as “environmental educators,” leading project activities and garnering real-world teaching experience.

Cape Fear River Watch