

North Carolina State University Foundation, Inc

Friday Institute for Education Innovation

A 2003 Traditional grant supported educational programming over three years at the College of Education and The Science House. The $1 million Traditional grant established the Science and Mathematics Collaboratory at the William and Ida Friday Institute for Educational Innovation. The grant enabled researchers, teachers, and students to develop new, measurable strategies to transform teaching of important scientific concepts.